HER THIRD BIRTHDAY

Little Elizabeth Bowie celebrated her third birthday Tuesday afternoon and invited fifty little boys and girls to help her enjoy the day. The little folks played games and had a fine time at a donkey contest.

The table was pretty with its big birthday cake and three candles. Souvenir baskets and Kewpies completed the decorations.

Ice cream and cake was the "party."

A GOOD-BYE PARTY

Miss Ruby Edmunds entertained Tuesday afternoon at a pleasant party in honor of Miss Gwen Bristow who is leaving Abbeville soon to make her home in Selma, Ala. Four tables of room players were entertained. The rooms were prettily decorated in vases of zinnias and the score cards were appropriate to the occasion.

A salad course with tea was served.

The farewell party will linger in the memory of Miss Bristow and the friends present.

FERGUSON—WISBY

Herman Wisby and Miss Lois Ferguson were married yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock by the Rev. J. B. Hillhouse at his home four miles from Abbeville, in the presence of a few intimate friends.

Mrs. Wisby is the attractive daughter of Mrs. W. B. Ferguson on North Main street. She attended Woman's College at Due West. Mr. Wisby was a student at Erskine College, Due West. He is now assisting his father in the mercantile business.

STREET DANCE POSTPONED

The ice cream festival and dance on the plaza, planned for this afternoon and tonight, have been postponed to next week, due to unfavorable weather.

A FOOTBALL PARTY

The party given Tuesday afternoon for the benefit of the football team was a success in every way. On account of the heavy rains the plan for holding the party at the Country Club was given up and it was held at the home of Mrs. C. E. Williamson. A large party of ladies gathered and rook and bridge were played for the afternoon.

The score cards were in the shape of footballs and were tied with red and gold, the colors of the high school team.

During the games "Mary" Neuffer, the lively young mascot of the team, dressed in the full regalia of a professional player, passed a football among the ladies and realized for the team nearly fifty dollars.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by Misses Margie Bradley, Sarah Barnes, Mary Milford and Edna Bradley, all of whom wore the sponsor costume of white skirts and red and gold sweaters. The party was a pleasant affair.

MRS. MORGAN ENTERTAINS

Mrs. J. M. Morgan entertained yesterday morning at a lovely bridge party at her home on Pickens street. There were four tables of players, who enjoyed the games and delicious refreshments.
